

Council News

A Publication of the Arab American and Chaldean Council | Fall 2008

Community Shows Support for Education

On June 4 about 200 friends and supporters came together at Shenandoah Country Club in West Bloomfield for the Arab American and Chaldean Council's (ACC) Sixth Annual Golf Outing & Scholarship Awards Dinner. The annual event raises funds for the ACC Scholarship Awards Program.

After a day of golfing, guests participated in a silent auction reception and an awards dinner. United Way for Southeastern Michigan's Chairman Reginald Turner served as the event's honorary chair while the event co-chairs were Gerald van Grinsven, President and CEO for Henry Ford West Bloomfield Hospital, Brenda Schneider, Senior Vice President for Comerica, and Jerry Shannon General, Manager for Country Fresh. Following the reception ACC conducted a live auction for an Executive Suite at Comerica Park for the Detroit Tigers, donated by David Dombrowski and Karie Ross.

The following students were selected as this year's scholarship recipients,

Lawrence Namait from Stevenson High School, Tamara Rabban from Southfield-Lathrup H.S., Ali Sobh and Hadi El Hussein from Fordson H.S., Rachel Abouzaid from Cousino H.S., Joseph Habib from Salem H.S., Candice Yousif from Utica H.S., Brandon Perry from Pershing Tech H.S., Fatima Mansour from Warren Lincoln H.S., and Russul Al-Shimary from Star International Academy.

ACC would like to thank all corporations and individuals for their support.