Scholarship program to provide twice as many scholarships as last year ACC 9th Annual Golf Outing & Scholarship Awards Dinner

Lathrup Village, MI - June 9, 2011 The Arab American & Chaldean Council (ACC) will host its 9th Annual Golf Outing & Scholarship Awards Dinner, benefiting the ACC Scholarship Awards Program on Tuesday, June 14, 2011 at West Bloomfield's Shenandoah Country Club, located at 5600 Walnut Lake Road.

ACC is proud to announce that this year's event will provide nearly twice as many scholarships as last year. Thanks to the support of our generous sponsors ACC's 2011 Scholarship Program will provide 18 scholarships. Congratulations to the this year's award recipients: Achraf Alghoussaini, Sabrine Jazrawi, Janat Al-Hachami, Chase Zebari, Ahmad El-Moussa, Rand Hana, Atif Hashwi, Mariam Mroueh, Shantel Yousif, Rany Toma, Hanie Basma, Hassan Farhat, Noor Salem, Asmahan Alassari, Aisha Mohamed, Genan Saghir, Angela Shaeena, and Areej Fares. Scholarship recipients demonstrated exceptional academic achievement, leadership skills and volunteerism in the community.

Ryan LaFontaine of LaFontaine Automotive Group and Oakland County Clerk/Register of Deeds Bill Bullard will serve as the Event Chairs. Registration is at 10 a.m. and golfers are set to tee off 11:15 a.m. followed by a silent auction reception and dinner at 4 p.m., where the award recipients will be recognized for their achievements.

ACC hopes to ensure the academic success of deserving students. Scholarships help attract and retain intelligent and capable, but financially disadvantaged students. Many students may find it difficult to continue their education following high school graduation. It's not the good grades they lack, but money. Together with our supporters, ACC is able to assist those in financial need.
