ACC opens new Hamtramck office to accommodate growing need

Hamtramck, MI - November 24, 2009 The Arab American and Chaldean Council (ACC) will hold a grand opening ceremony and reception in honor of its new Hamtramck Center Monday, November 30th from 12:00 to 2:00 pm at 9019 Jos Campau in Hamtramck. This relocation is a result of the growing demand for services.

Since 1980, ACC has been providing services to the city of Hamtramck. The Hamtramck Center is a multifaceted facility that is available to all community residents. It currently houses a wide range of programs and services such as SEMCA Job Education and Training, Women Infant and Children (WIC) Nutrition Program, youth programs and services, DHS social services, and referrals in addition to others.

To learn more about ACC's Hamtramck Center, call (313) 875-4686.

Arab American and Chaldean Council (ACC)

ACC is the premier non-profit human service organization providing services to the Middle Eastern and mainstream communities in Southeast Michigan. Furthermore, ACC provides better opportunities to enable newcomers to adjust to their new environment. As a bridge of understanding, ACC maximizes the skills, resources and expertise of the community to:

- Build cooperation and understanding
- Raise the level of individuals' well-being
- Increase cross-cultural understanding through education
- Deliver human services, counseling and opportunities
- Gear community members towards achievement
- Empower through employment training and placement
