10th Annual Golf Outing on June 5 to support academic scholarships

Lathrup Village, MI - May 31, 2012 The Arab American & Chaldean Council (ACC) will host the Tenth Annual Golf Outing & Scholarship Awards Dinner, benefiting the ACC Scholarship Awards Program on Tuesday, June 5, 2012 at West Bloomfield's Shenandoah Country Club, located at 5600 Walnut Lake Road.

Registration is at 10 a.m. and golfers are set to tee off 11:15 a.m. followed by cocktails and the awards dinner, where graduates will receive scholarships. ACC hopes to ensure the academic success of the deserving students. Scholarships help attract and retain intelligent and capable, but financially disadvantaged students. Many students may find it difficult to continue their education following high school graduation. With an ongoing budget problem, stagnant economy, and increased tuition rates, financing a diploma will be a challenge and the option of loans may land many thousands of dollars in debt.

"ACC encourages youth to pursue higher education and this event is aimed at raising money for students who not only prove the ability to garner outstanding grades, but show that they're willing and eager to improve themselves through education," said Abe Munfakh, ACC's Chairman of the Board.

Don't miss it! It's not too late to join ACC on June 5th for its annual Golf Outings and Scholarship Awards Dinner. Not a golfer? Join us for the dinner program. The dinner program includes a cocktail reception, silent auction, and live auction which will feature a Tigers Suite for June 19th against the World Series champion St. Louis Cardinals that includes 18 tickets and 3 parking passes.
