

32nd Annual Civic & Humanitarian Awards Gala

April 2011

To Whom It May Concern,

The Arab American and Chaldean Council (ACC) invites you to participate in its 32nd Annual Civic & Humanitarian Awards Gala on September 30, 2011 at the Detroit Marriott Renaissance Center to celebrate over three decades of service to the communities of Southeastern Michigan. This year's event will honor individuals that through their philanthropic endeavors have joined ACC in providing services to those in need.

Funds raised through the gala will benefit ACC's many programs and services. Your generous support will help us to fulfill our mission to support the overall well-being of the community.

ACC is committed to "Making a Difference" in the lives of those it serves and with your support will provide much needed resources, education, training, and services to empower newcomers and young leaders with the tools to realize the hope and the promise of a better tomorrow.

As a sponsor of the 32nd Annual Civic and Humanitarian Awards Gala, your business will be highlighted in the program book and acknowledged on the ACC radio program, which targets thousands of individuals and businesses in Southeastern Michigan. For your convenience, enclosed is a sponsorship package including marketing opportunities that best meets your business needs.

We hope you will be part of this year's gala, to share in this prestigious event and to support the men, women and children who receive services from ACC. For more information about this event, please contact Kimberly Hassan at (248) 559-1990 or via email at kimberlyh@myacc.org. We truly hope you are able to join me us at this year's dinner. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Haifa Fakhouri'.

Haifa Fakhouri, Ph.D.
President and CEO

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Abe Munfakh'.

Abe Munfakh
Chairman of the Board