

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ARAB AMERICAN AND CHALDEAN COUNCIL RELOCATES HEADQUARTERS TO TROY

LATHRUP VILLAGE, Mich. – Oct. 13, 2014 – The Arab American and Chaldean Council (ACC), a premier nonprofit human service organization serving southeast Michigan, announced it has relocated its headquarters to Troy, Mich. from Lathrup Village, Mich. The new office is located at 363 W. Big Beaver Road, Suite 300.

Administrative staff members will be housed in the new 11,000-square-foot space, which will feature an expanded administrative office.

“Our new space is centrally located between the three counties we serve, allowing us to better access our clients,” said Dr. Haifa Fakhouri, ACC President and CEO. “We are excited about this new space and look forward to becoming an active member of the Troy community.”

The ACC serves more than 70,000 clients in metropolitan Detroit. The organization’s programs include Pantry of Plenty – the twice-monthly food distribution event at its Detroit office, behavioral health, employment and training, social services and youth and recreational programs. Additionally, the ACC also operates 40 outreach offices throughout Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties, staffed with bilingual and trilingual staffs.

About the Arab American and Chaldean Council (ACC)

The Arab American and Chaldean Council (ACC) is the premier nonprofit human service organization providing services to the Middle Eastern and mainstream communities in Southeast Michigan. Founded in 1979, the ACC provides counseling, health care, social services, employment training, job placement, translation, interpretation and youth services to more than 70,000 clients in metro Detroit. The ACC operates 40 outreach offices in the tri-county area, staffed with bilingual and trilingual professionals to serve the Arab American and Chaldean American populations and offer assistance to the Middle East refugee population. For more information, visit www.myacc.org or call (248) 559-1990.

###